Honors Course Contracts require both quantitatively and qualitatively more work from the student, usually 10-15% additional effort beyond standard course requirements, such as additional reading, writing, researching, presenting, etc. (or combination) appropriate to the course. The students and instructor must meet regularly outside of normal class meetings to discuss the Honors work. Ideally, this should be every other week for at least 30 minutes.

- Schedule of regular meetings between student and instructor outside of class (required):

Honors Contract Activities: Please specifically describe the extra effort required for the Honors contract – identify the length of papers, scope of extra projects, etc. (e.g., literature and/or library research; presentation at a class or club meeting; authorship/co-authorship of a submitted publication; service learning, community-based research, etc.)

- Extra course activities (required):

I agree to these Honors contract requirements. I will contact the Department Honors Director or Department Chair if these requirements are not met.
